Red Reinforcement Columns In Korea Are Blasted From Air

U.S. Air Attacks Cause Heavy Loss To Enemy

Yalu River Bridges Being Blasted To Slow Troop Movement

(BULLETIN)
SEOUL, Nov. 13.—(INS)—American bombers and fighters wrecked additional Manchurian-Korean traffic links and struck down hundreds of Red troops today in attacks along Korea's northern frontier strip.

Fifth Air Force fighter-bombers delivered lethal blows at Communist reinforcements moving down from the Manchurian border along a 20-mile highway stretch near Yumunjin.

Attack 20 Miles Of Troops
An official announcement said bombs, rockets and aerial gunfire were poured upon these enemy groups rolling toward the Red Staging base of Hunchon behind the North Korean central battle sector. The bulletin said "20 miles of troops" were attacked.

This followed a smashing Sunday strike by low-flying planes in close support of South Korean Sixth Division troops which had been forced back two and half miles by a powered attack between Kunuri and Tokchon.

Strike Telling Blows
The participating airmen were credited with killing about 1,000 troops and thus enabling the South Koreans to check the Communist onslaught—at least temporarily—by Sunday night.

More than 40 Superforts struck a telling blow at the enemy's international communications Monday afternoon when they knocked down the first span on the Korean side of a Yalu river bridge at Sinuiju.

Both of Sinuiju's rail-highway bridges connecting the northwest Korean frontier city with Manchuria's Antung across the Yalu thus were blasted out of operation within 48 hours.

PA NEWS OBSERVES
The large motor paver of the highways department is in operation on the Frew Mill road today, pouring hot asphalt on the reconstructed portion of road near the Mt. Hermon church. Lack of oil has delayed this project. One car load of oil has been received but a second will be needed before the project can be completed.

No time was lost by workmen in removing the decorations and bunting placed about the city for the Armistice celebration. Early Sunday morning, the men were observed on the city streets removing the decorations before traffic on downtown traffic arteries became too heavy.

Although temperatures about the city hovered in the low thirties prior to eight o'clock this morning, several carloads of young people in open air vehicles were noted enroute to the local high school. The youth seemingly were enjoying the brisk morning air which was adding a bit of color to their faces.

Auto and trucks that came into New Castle Saturday afternoon from the area near Lake Erie, were coated with snow, indicating that there was quite a heavy snowfall in that district. There were some flurries here, but no heavy snow.

Although the Harlansburg road is not officially opened to traffic as yet, motorists were not kept from using the new road on Sunday. No word has been received by the highways department to remove the detour signs. New Route 422 east of the city was used also (Continued on Page Two)

Heavy Loss In Big Barn Fire

Blaze Destroys 'Greer Farm' Barn

Fire, which was discovered about 5:30 o'clock this morning, razed a huge barn, around 60 by 120 feet in size, and destroyed most of the contents, with a loss which is believed will be around $25,000, partly covered by insurance, on the old Greer farm on the King's Chapel road, owned by Jack M. Randall.

When discovered, the fire had gained considerable headway, and Neshannock township and Union township firemen had a hard battle on their hands to save surrounding structures, but were able to keep the flames confined to the main structure by heroic efforts. The cause of the blaze was not determined.

Stock Is Saved

Medure Walks Out Of Council Session Today

Action Result Of Failure To Act On Rent Control

Councilman Joseph F. Medure walked out of council meeting held in city hall today because none of his councilmanic colleagues would second his resolution extending rent control from January 1, 1951, to July 1.

But before he departed from council chambers he remarked that he would refuse to vote favorably for the proposed amusement tax and employes pay increase, which, if carried out, imperils plans for balancing the 1951 budget.

Prior to "taking a walk", similar one taken by Mayor John F. Haven and Councilman Richard I. Davis recently, Mr. Medure presented a resolution which was read by City Clerk Jack Fritz.

Resolution Presented
The resolution, in brief, declared there is a shortage of housing accommodations here and authorized that the housing expeditor of this federal district be appraised of the shortage.

Solicitor R. M. White ruled that the resolution was prepared in conformity of law, and that the idea of rent control, which has been left by congress to municipalities, was to prevent evictions.

He termed the act a war measure, which is to expire next July. No member of council offered a second to the Medure resolution, whereupon he arose in his seat, and said:

States His Position
"By not extending rent control people will suffer. So far there has not been one municipality which has refused to extend rent control". He pointed out Ellwood City has extended it.

Referring to a communication previously read, and provided by L. C. Mather, who opposed extension of rent control, Mr. Medure said:

"Mr. Mather is one who says he will be fair.

Giving to the Community Chest through the medium of its annual campaign indicates which side of the "fence" one is on. It shows that one has faith in mankind and that one recognizes his responsibility as a citizen of the American way of life. Further it proves that one is doing his duty toward his brothers. The reward, if there need be one, is the feeling that giving creates; the feeling of usefulness and belonging. Together with this is the sight of seeing what your gift makes possible through the programs of the 12 Red Feather Agencies that make up the Community Chest.

United Nations forces gained up to four miles in their cautious offensive along the 250 mile battle front, battling to wipe out an enemy pocket in the Chongchun river line at Tokchon (1). Allied bombers struck key cities of Sinuiju, Manpojin and Sakchu (blast symbols) and blasted bridges across the Yalu river, where Chinese Communist reinforcements enter Korea. The U. S. 7th Marine Regiment advanced within four miles of the Chosin reservoir (2) without opposition. U. S. 3rd Division reached Habongsan (3) to link up with ROK forces and form a solid United Nations defense line across the narrow waist of Korea.

Seek To Speed Settlement Of Phone Strike

Strike Activity Being Intensified By C.I.O. Leaders

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—CIO leaders put into operation today a plan for intensified strike activity including "jamming" of dial and long distance telephone lines in an effort to speed a favorable settlement of the strike against the Western Electric Co. Meanwhile, federal mediators will meet again at 2:30 p.m. with representatives of the CIO Communications Workers of America and Western, a subsidiary of the American Telephone and Telegraph Co.

At the conclusion of yesterday's conciliation efforts the company and union were said to be four cents apart on a new wage agreement. The company offered a wage hike of 11½ cents an hour with a 16-months contract and the union demanded a 15 cents raise and a one-year agreement.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Nov. 13.—A representative of the United Nations was en route by air today to the Korean fighting front in an indicated effort to negotiate directly with the Chinese Communists for a settlement of frontier issues.

James Plimssol, Australian minister on the newly-created U. N. commission for the unification and rehabilitation of Korea, said prior to his takeoff from New York last night that the use of military force by Communist China to protect its frontier interests is "wholly unwarranted and unnecessary" interference this as a new appeal to the (Continued on Page Two)

Americans In New Advances In North Korea

South Korean Troops, However, Are Forced Back About Two Miles

By IRVING R. LEVINE (I. N. S. War Correspondent)

SEOUL, Nov. 14.—(Tuesday)—American forces scored gains of two and a half to three miles in both northwest and northeast Korea Monday but Red attacks in the center forced South Korean troops back two and a half miles.

As fighting flared along the now-continuous transpeninsular front, U. S. planes struck at a 20-mile-long column of Communist reinforcements moving down from Manchuria's border toward the central sector.

B-29 Superforts knocked out the last of the two Antung-Sinuiju bridges that comprised the most important Yalu river link between Red China's Manchuria and Korea.

Gain Two and Half Miles
On the west side of the front, the U. S. 24th Infantry Division renewed the United Nations drive beyond the Chongchun river bridgehead Monday morning. By 4 o'clock Monday afternoon (2 a.m. Monday EST), the Americans had gained two and a half miles in the area west of Pakchon.

The 24th's spearheads reached points about a mile and a half northwest of Pakchon and thus outflanked that enemy-held hub toward which British Commonwealth troops had moved from the southeast.

The 24th pushed north against no resistance and some of the Division (Continued on Page Fourteen)

Six Persons Die In Burning Home

GARRETT, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Tiny Garrett today shared the grief of the town's assistant fire chief and his wife whose five children and a young relative died of suffocation during a blaze which destroyed their old, frame house.

The sixth victim, 15-year-old Clarence Lee was the brother of Mrs. Stella Lee. She and her husband, Harvey, were shopping when the fire started late Saturday night. Their children and the uncle were sleeping upstairs.

Firemen fought the blaze for more than an hour in sub-freezing temperatures. An overheated coal heater, near the upstairs entrance, was believed responsible for the tragedy.

The dead Lee children were Linda Sue, 2, Laverne, 4, Danny, 5, Darlene, 7, and Kay Francis, 15.

Chinese Opposed To Reds Declares Chiang Kai-Shek

By JOHN A. REICHMANN (I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—United States officials studied today the reports of Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek that the bulk of the Chinese people are opposed to their communist masters.

In an exclusive article written for the International News Service, Chiang reported that there is active revolt among many of the troops now facing United Nations forces in Korea.

He asserted that those forces were sent into Manchuria either through "deliberate misrepresentation or brute coercion." Similar revolts exist, he said, in neighboring provinces.

These reports have not been borne out by intelligence information but this is acknowledgedly weak in communist-held China. With all U. S. diplomats out and (Continued on Page Two) tration, you (meaning council) are against it.

"We have all made mistakes, but I said control should be extended to July 1.

"If this is the way you want to play the game, I want to say that I will vote against the amendment tax and the raise in wages."

Mr. Medure then left council chambers.

"We have until January 1 to protect people. My silence is not to be accepted as a negative vote, but I am not yet ready to cast a vote. We can hold public hearings, I believe the people should decide," Councilman Davis remarked.

"Mr. Medure's remark concerning 'Democrats' was uncalled for," Mayor Haven remarked.

"I am as much interested in poor people as anyone. I'm not prepared at this time to vote for rent control. I believe council will think it over before January 1. I would like to see a survey made," said Councilman Schweinsberg.

Mayor Haven said that what may be necessary in some cities may not be necessary in others. "I'm interested in a fair rent," he said, adding that when rents were frozen some property owners were "chastised."

He said also that while council can extend rent control, the housing expediter, located at Pittsburgh, assumes charge of the situation.

"We are capable of voting it in, but apparently not capable of controlling rent," the mayor concluded.

"Go to Pittsburgh, and you are shoveling around," Congressman Van Zandt recently told me congress would extend rent control next January."

"If we could control rent control, Mr. Medure would get a full vote for it," the mayor stated.

DIRECT NEGOTIATION WITH CHINESE REDS AIM OF U.N.

Chinese Communist government to withdraw its troops from North Korea and entrust its electric power and industrial interests on the frontier to the U. N.

Will Assemble In Tokyo

Plimsoll said the seven-nation commission will assemble in Tokyo for an organization meeting and shortly thereafter will head for the fighting zone.

He will be followed by plane from New York on Wednesday by Ambassador Manuel Trucco of Chile and Ambassador Mian Ziauddin of Pakistan.

Meanwhile, the United States insisted that Communist China undergo questioning before the U. N. security council this week on the entrance of 60,000 of its troops into the Korean fighting.

Peiping rejected Saturday an invitation of the council to discuss Chinese intervention in Korea. Despite this the United States will press for an explanation of Gen. MacArthur's charges that Chinese Communist troops have crossed the frontier from Manchuria and engaged U. N. forces in Korea.

Ask Chinese Explain

A nine-member team coming by air from Peiping to New York will be asked by American Delegate Warren Austin to make an explanation.

Austin and other western members of the council plan to question the Communist delegation despite Communist Foreign Minister Chou Enlai's view, which specifically rejects consultations on MacArthur's report but insists on an all inclusive canvassing of the Korean-Foreman situation. On this basis, it is believed possible to quiz the Peiping delegation within the framework of the entire Far Eastern situation.

though they caught fire in places several times.

When Fire Chief James Messner and his men from Neshannock township arrived at the scene, they saw they had a serious fire to contend with, and summoned Union township firemen to the scene, who assisted in saving the adjoining structures. There was a fair supply of water for fighting the blaze which flowed through a culvert underneath the road. Neshannock township firemen building a dam to form a pool with which to pump water to the blaze.

The fire was discovered by William Coulter, who lives in an apartment in front of the brick cattle barn. He notified Mr. Randall, who with his son was doing the milking in the cattle barn, near by. They summoned Neshannock firemen, and rescued two valuable horses, also letting out some calves and a large number of pigs in the pig barns, all of which were saved.

Second Serious Fire

Destroyed in the barn was 3,000 bushels of oats, 2,000 bales of straw, 15 tons of baled hay, two tractors, a grain drill, seed tractor, hammer mill, Dodge truck, wagon, some lumber, and other equipment.

Just about a year ago, on December 7, 1949, another large barn on the farm was destroyed by fire about a half mile west of the scene of this morning's blaze, the loss in this instance also being a severe one.

LARGE CROWD SEES ARMISTICE DAY PARADE

was an outstanding one. Because of the many things it stood for, the judges finally decided on the P.T.A. float as the most outstanding, followed by the New Castle hospital, Girl Scout Troop 26, and the Catholic War Veterans and Auxiliary. There were many other outstanding floats, all of which deserved honorable mention.

Chairman Edward A. DeCarbo, Parade Marshal George E. Hunt, and their aides, all worked hard to make the parade a most successful one, and saw their efforts crowned with success.

One of the newer bands which attracted a great amount of attention in the parade with their snappy music and maneuvers was the band from Wampum high school. This band is directed by Leslie H. Marietta, and has only been organized a little more than a year, only four of the members having had previous musical experience.

All in all, it was one of the finest parades in many years, and drew many favorable comments from the spectators.

communications difficult even at the best of times, it is doubtful that even British intelligence could run them down.

Not Committed Fully

There are some indications that Red China does not want to be committed fully in the Korean conflict. Numerous threats of action from the Peiping radio are not taken too seriously. Such blustering has been engaged in before. It was notably so when the seventh fleet was thrown around Formosa.

While the communists threatened to invade the island despite the presence of the fleet, ultimately its case was taken to the United Nations.

There, too, the Chinese refusal

Best Trained Troops Sent

Observers believe that only the best trained Red troops have been committed in Indo-China and Tibet. Chinese in New York claim that 30,000 have been sent into Indo-China.

This would not noticeably weaken the battle hardened forces that took over the mainland. But it might indicate that Peiping must save face in Indo-China.

Likewise the Tibet venture might be analyzed as a matter of prestige, aimed at impressing India, Afghanistan and other nearby areas.

Some believe that the disturbance in adjacent Nepal, where a progressive king was unseated, is a reaction to the threat to Tibet.

MARILU WALLER TO WED RUSSELL PARK

A lovely party took place during the week-end in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sullivan, 141 East Winter avenue, when they announced the engagement and approaching marriage of their granddaughter, Marilu Waller, to Russell Park. The delightfully informal occasion interested a group of close friends of the honoree, with the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Walter Pearson and Mrs. Jesse Dufford sharing as co-hostesses.

In tune with the season, the fall motif predominated in the various bouquets of bronze, lavender and yellow mums placed throughout the house. Marking each place, was a dainty card inscribed with the name, "Marilu and Russ—December 2, 1950." A varied program of pastimes preceded this feature.

How MILD can a Cigarette be?

NOTED THROAT SPECIALISTS REPORT ON 30-DAY TEST OF CAMEL SMOKERS...

Not one single case of throat irritation due to smoking CAMELS!

Yes, these were the findings of noted throat specialists after a total of 2,470 weekly examinations of the throats of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels — and only Camels — for 30 consecutive days.

"THE ROLES I PLAY IN MOVIES ARE FAR FROM EASY ON MY VOICE — I CAN'T RISK THROAT IRRITATION. SO I SMOKE CAMELS — THEY'RE MILD"

John Wayne POPULAR, HANDSOME HOLLYWOOD STAR

"I've been around movie sets long enough to know how important cigarette mildness is to an actor. So when it came to deciding what cigarette was just right for my throat, I was very particular. I made the sensible test — the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test!

"I gave Camels a real tryout for 30 days. The most pleasure I ever had from smoking. I found out for myself why more people smoke Camels than any other cigarette!"

Make your own 30-Day Camel Mildness Test in your "T-Zone"
(T for Throat, T for Taste)

MORE DOCTORS SMOKE CAMELS than any other cigarette!

In a recent nationwide survey, doctors in every branch of medicine were asked what cigarette they smoked. The brand named most was Camels!

MAN'S IDEA OF A MOVIE HERO
And the women agree! 6 feet 4 inches, John Wayne has smashed his way to fame in dozens of rough-and-tumble — knock-down-and-drag-out — hard-riding... glorious motion pictures!

BILLIONS IN CLAIMS

The United States Supreme Court has agreed to rule on an Indian land-claims case which, according to the Department of Justice, could result in other similar cases involving a total of $14,000,000,000. The figure is correct. All those noughts belong there. The amount is 14 billions of dollars, not millions.

This particular case—the one the Supreme Court will review—is of no great importance all by itself. It has to do with 2,772,580 acres of land taken by the United States from the Tillamook and other Oregon Indians in 1855. The United States Court of Claims has decided that the Indians are entitled to $1.20 an acre for this land plus interest from 1855. This adds up to $17,384,516—a mere bagatelle.

But the Justice Department says that 72 other claims have been filed under another act of Congress. These new claims total upwards of $8,300,000,000 in principal and interest. Since another 100 contracts between Indian tribes and attorneys for suits under the statute have been approved by the Interior Department, the estimate of $14,000,000,000 may not be far wrong.

What is the government going to do about raising these billions, in the event that the Supreme Court rules in favor of the Indian tribes? Specially now, when the need to increase the budget to meet defense costs is pushing the nation faster and faster to the precipice of uncontrolled inflation? And what will the Indians do with all this money, should they get it?

It would be simpler to do what some pessimists have suggested would be a good idea—just give the country back to the Indians and let them run it.

THE GOVERNMENT PAYS TWICE

A study of the curious history of a shipment of aircraft computers, brought to light by the Senate Defense Investigating Committee, offers at least one explanation of the high cost of military equipment to the taxpayers.

It's simply that some equipment is bought twice. In the case unearthed by the "Watchdog Committee" investigators, a Texan bought the computers for $6.89 and then didn't want to take them when he found he'd need about an acre of storage space for them. But the Surplus Property Disposal Agency was adamant, and forced the reluctant buyer to cart them away. He got in touch with the Air Force, found they needed computers, and was paid $63,000 for the lot.

As the committee said, this was a "most astounding case of shortsightedness." The government paid $1,209,000 for the computers in the first place, sold them for $6.89 and then bought them back for $63,000. Obviously, the taxpayer lost on the deal.

The cost of building up our military strength is going to be high enough as it is. It will get to intolerable heights unless this business of the government's paying two times for the same items is halted.

POSSIBLE NEW ATOMIC EFFECT

A hint of significant new developments in the use of atomic explosives in warfare has been dropped in a report of the Department of Defense.

It indicated that atomic weapons are being developed for use on the battlefield, as in artillery shells and guided missiles.

This would bring a radical new effect on atomic energy on warfare, since the atomic bomb heretofore has been regarded as purely a weapon of attack against big, concentrated targets, such as large cities or massed fleets.

There are a limited number of such targets, and hence it is frequently debated whether the atomic bomb can be regarded whether the atomic bomb can be regarded as a decisive weapon.

But the use of atomic explosives on the battlefields would be something entirely different. That an enemy's armies and equipment in the field might be reduced, in a single assault, to a shambles like that of Nagasaki or Hiroshima is a staggering possibility.

It would be a possibility which should give pause to the possibility which should give pause to most stout-hearted militarist, and might have caused even a Hitler to stay his hand. A fanatical aggressor may willingly risk the annihilation of his cities, but without his armies he would be finished.

Immediately after the end of World War II it was supposed that the terrible threat of the atomic bomb might be enough to make future war impossible.

It has turned out that the uses of the bomb are somewhat limited that its forcefulness as a threat likewise is limited. If this limitation were removed, perhaps war might yet become universally unthinkable.

Russians now claim they invented the bicycle. Is that why Joe Stalin wears that handle-bar mustache.

The Library of Congress has recorded 8,300 history "books" on microfilm. That's cutting a long story short.

Apparently, the sky's the limit with those Chinese Reds. Now they're trying to grab Tibet, known as the "Roof of the World."

A new mountain range has been discovered. However, this should interest submarine pilots only. It's on the bottom of the Pacific ocean.

The weatherman has now been blamed for everything. A Spokane woman told the cops her car was speeding because of a strong following wind.

Western Reich Change Imminent

Plans reported made by British Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin for a special visit to western Germany raised the likelihood that a major change in the status of the western Reich is imminent.

No official announcement of the trip has yet been made, but the British press is talking about it.

Emphasis is being placed upon the state of Bevin's health, coupled with the possibility of an early new general election in Great Britain.

The implication is that Bevin desires to liquidate the German problem before he retires from office and that the trip will be something of a gesture to underscore a detailed program already believed drawn up for settlement.

Initially, the western powers are going to end the state of war with Germany that has existed since Sept. 8, 1939.

The official attitude will be that France and England declared war upon the Hitler regime for its rash invasion of Poland, compelling both those nations to honor solemn treaty obligations.

Drafting of Peace Treaty
 Then will come the drafting of a peace treaty, but how this is to be done is an unanswered question and will remain so while Germany remains divided between east and west.

Full diplomatic recognition and easing of many controls that are still rigorously enforced will come with the passage of time.

The western nations already are believed to have set a definite date for ending the state of war. Belgium has officially signified her willingness to do so, and some months ago there was general belief that Great Britain and France had reached full agreement on the subject.

Soviet Russian reaction to these measures will be interesting to watch and important in its significance to the world.

There have been some definite signs that the Russians are working out a scheme to make of eastern Germany a separate and independent nation within the Soviet sphere.

In other words, that part of the country will become a satellite of the Kremlin and once again the allies may be placed in an awkward position.

They are on record before the United Nations and elsewhere as vigorously opposing any further communist expansion, either military, by infiltration or under the guise of palpably false and fabricated "civil war."

Uneasy Position
 But if, by the same token, the western powers are going to take positive measures regarding Germany and Soviet "reprisals" result, the position will be an uneasy one, to say the least, and it is impossible to predict what events will follow in their train.

Some of them, of course, are bound to be beneficial to the defense of western Europe.

The allies have not yet agreed upon a definite plan for German mobilization and rearmament. It has been impossible to establish a workable whole out of the diverse suggestions which have been offered.

Justified or not, there is a growing resentment in present-day Germany over an allied indecision which leaves the German people wondering what they are to be tomorrow and whether they ever again are to be subjects of a sovereign nation.

Except through their political leaders, they are powerless to complain but there is no doubt that the average German would serve only grudgingly under a foreign commander while mothers and fathers might start a passive movement against such conscription that could wreck the country's precarious economy.

In all probability, Bevin hopes that his visit will set the seal of a restored Anglo-German friendship which in turn should increase the measure of German cooperation.

Should the state of war be ended soon afterward, cooperation might be assured and the still-vast resources of Germany harnessed effectively to the cause of peace and resistance to communism.

Bevin then could resign with the words "mission accomplished." But just how permanent the solution might be is obviously impossible to forecast.

GUEST OF HONOR

He looked about the table with a twinkle in his eye could miss. Then said: "I want to tell you I have always hoped for this. Down the years I've often wondered if the day would ever be when the I've known and worked with would a party give for me."

"Men work for fame and fortune but there's more to be desired. For a man may long for friendship when his fortune is acquired. When his comrades meet to praise him, it is music to his ears. And no reward is greater for the labor of his years."

"It is this that I have hoped for. It is this, I've tried to win. The faith of all my fellows when the resting days begin. Just a party such as this one: friends who still believe in me. This I say is true achievement; this is man's best victory."

Political Power Struggle Shifted

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—The major struggle for political power in this country has been shifted, for the time being at least, to the arena of the Republican party. That is one of the highly significant results of the conservative sweep in the recent election.

The struggle promises to grow increasingly bitter as June of 1952 draws nearer and the Republicans prepare to choose a presidential candidate. It is possible in this preliminary phase to see three distinct factions that will each have a leverage of power along with an ambition to take over the party.

In a most striking way the outcome on Tuesday aligns the two most conspicuous Republicans in the same kind of opposition that built up to the contest in 1948. Senator Robert A. Taft's impressive victory in Ohio makes him again—regardless of his own disclaimer of interest—a leading contender for the nomination.

Governor Thomas E. Dewey's triumph in New York likewise puts him in a strategic position. Dewey has publicly backed Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for '52.

Factions Emerge
 Here, then, are the two principal factions that emerge. In the new Senate each will have formidable strength. In the Dewey-Eisenhower camp will be found those Republicans whom the Chicago Tribune refers to contemptuously as "eastern internationalists." Among them are Senators Ives of New York, Aiken and Flinders of Vermont, Lodge and Saltonstall of Massachusetts, Thye of Minnesota, and Governor James Duff of Pennsylvania, who will take his place in the Senate in January.

It will also include those who are listed as liberal or progressive, such as Senator Morse of Oregon and Tobey of New Hampshire, Governor Earl Warren of California will almost certainly be in this camp, too.

These men, it should be added, are not necessarily all supporters of Eisenhower at the present moment. But they can be expected to recognize their own mutual interest in preventing the party from taking an isolationist-reactionary line. And at the present writing Eisenhower would seem to be their most likely candidate.

Has Enlarged Hold
 Taft has unquestionably enlarged his hold on wide segments of the party and the machinery that operates it. In the Senate he will have with him a solid phalanx of conservative Republicans, among them Senators Millikin of Colorado, Brewster of Maine, Butler and Wherry of Nebraska, Kem of Missouri and Watkins of Utah.

Taft's old friend and former chief supporter, B. Carroll Reece, was elected in Tennessee to the House in the face of opposition in his own party. This will mean an added strength for the Taft faction. Already, in his new-found confidence, Taft is challenging the base of the Truman foreign policy which is the strength of the Dewey camp.

Great Game Of Politics

By FRANK R. KENT

(Copyright 1950, By The Baltimore Sun)

Some Wholesome Results

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13. The election results have now been dissected, analyzed and interpreted by a vast number of more or less profound dissectors, analysts and interpreters. Naturally, not all of these agree. Certainly they leave plenty of room for argument and, of course, there are few known instances of anyone ever winning a political argument anywhere.

However, certain things seem plain. Beyond question the outstandingly significant and most important of these is the great victory (upward of 450,000 majority) of Senator Taft in Ohio. All over the country there is relief and rejoicing at this among Democrats as well as Republicans who fully grasped what was involved in the anti-Taft fight. That was far more than a party fight or a state fight. It was far bigger than Mr. Taft and his opposition as individuals. It presented the most vital national issue of the whole campaign.

For Mr. Taft's opponent was not the Democratic party. His real opponents were the labor politicians who took over the Democratic party in Ohio, financed and directed the campaign, putting into it labor-union solidarity and strength such as had never been achieved before. The avowed purpose of the unified labor bosses was to drive Mr. Taft out of public life because they could not control him. In this they were supported to the limit of its power by the Truman Administration. Vice President Barkley was sent in to make four speeches. Various Cabinet members and other Federal officials toured the State. As the President's personal representative, Mr. Averell Harriman assailed Mr. Taft before a labor convention. No Administration stone was left unturned.

Obviously, had this labor-boss attempt to murder Senator Taft succeeded it would have enormously enhanced their power and prestige. It would have demonstrated their ability to destroy any public man who defied them. It would have completed their dominance of the Democratic party and instilled fear among all aspirants for and holders of elective office. That this was exactly what they had in mind was revealed more than a year ago, when the purpose to kill off Senator Taft was first declared, by their journalistic spokesman discussing the steps to be taken following the Taft defeat. It was again revealed the week before election when one of the labor bosses, in denouncing Ohio newspapers for supporting Taft, said: "Wait until we knock off this so and so. Next time we'll tell these papers what they can and what they can't print." So far from being an idle threat, this was one they thought they could make good.

Failure of the effort is tremendously heartening for a number of reasons: (1) It shows the inability of the labor politicians to deliver their own votes; (2) it shows that the reaction of the people is emphatically against labor-union dominance of politics and government; (3) it makes it impossible for them to bully and bluff members of Congress in quite the way they have in the past; (4) it has exhibited them as dirty and unscrupulous fighters; (5) it undoubtedly is the worst reverse these arrogant and greedy leaders of organized labor ever had; (6) by diminishing in size and lessening the fear which they inspired among the more timid members of Congress, it will have a wholesome effect upon politics generally; (7) it ends all possibility of repealing the Taft-Hartley act so vehemently promised by Mr. Truman. Also, in Colorado, Utah, Illinois and Pennsylvania the labor bosses marked for defeat the Republican candidates who won.

Aside from the Taft triumph, other election results of significance seem to be: (1) End of the idea that there is political magic in the Roosevelt name—the crushing defeat of Mr. James Roosevelt in California leaves no room to argue about that; (2) Republican successes in so many states make it impossible for the most ardent administrationist to regard the election with gratification. As a matter of fact, chances for passage at the next session of the Brannan farm bill, the socialized medicine bill or any other of the Truman domestic recommendations of the last session appear eliminated. Further, it should strengthen the economy forces in Congress, who believe that nondefense expenditures should be cut to the bone, in contrast with the view of the White House economists, who insist on an increase in nondefense expenditures. Still further, it makes inevitable with increased defense expenditures. Still further, it makes inevitable the rather ridiculous columnar prophets who, since 1948, insisted the Republican party was dead. They recall the end of the Democratic party had come and it never could rise again.

The disposition of some to consider that because of the election of certain Republican critics of the Truman foreign policy—notably Mr. Dirksen in Illinois—it can no longer be carried out effectively and that Secretary Acheson must resign does not seem well based. The President's foreign policy was not sufficiently a direct issue in the campaign anywhere to justify such an assumption. Both Mr. Taft, who is one of the strongest opponents of the Truman-Acheson foreign policy, and Mr. Dewey, who in the main strongly supports it, were elected by crushing majorities. There is, as Mr. Acheson says, no reason for a change.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDELS

Far be it from me to pose as a music critic. So I can't tell you whether Margaret Truman was good or bad when she appeared on television a couple of Sundays ago.

All I know is that I liked her personality and her voice.

It makes me mad to hear a lot of people criticize the girl's appearances as a concert singer just because she is the President's daughter.

All right, she isn't the world's greatest coloratura. She may sing a few flat notes.

All right, she isn't the country's most glamorous woman. She may never take a beauty prize.

But why on earth hasn't she the right to lead the kind of life she WANTS to lead, without having every Tom, Dick and Harry stick his nose into it?

Margaret Truman prepared for a concert career many years before her father became President. She studied hard for more than ten years—harder than a lot of people who now criticize her.

She is a nice girl. She is modest. She is not a bit conceited. Ask any newspaperman or woman who has ever talked to her.

"Charming" is the universal answer.

Why is it that we are so ready to be nice to people and at the same time to be so nasty?

Three Are Killed In Auto Collision On State Turnpike

CARLISLE, Pa., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Two Paterson, N. J., men are under $3,000 each today pending a coroner's inquest in the deaths of three people in a three-car collision on the Pennsylvania Turnpike 18 miles west of Carlisle.

The victims were Eugene L. Pointer, 28, of Glendale, Cal., driving alone and C. S. Porter, 25, of Newark, N. J., and a companion, Alvin Small, 28, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The Patterson men and a companion, Emma Garner, of Cleveland, escaped injury.

Small died instantly while Pointer and Porter died enroute to Carlisle hospital.

Held under bail are Norman Robinson, 18, whom state police said was driving without a license, and a 24-year-old brother, Stanley. The Robinsons and the Garner woman are negroes.

State police reported that the Robinson car struck Pointer's machine at a high rate of speed near Blue Mountain tunnel and flipped it across the divider on the four-lane highway into the path of the westbound car driven by Porter. Both cars were demolished.

Police said that Stanley Robinson fled the scene of the accident and was captured several hours later 15 miles away near Shippensburg.

GROWTH

LARAMIE, Wyo.—(INS)—Information in the files of the University of Wyoming archives department shows the rapid growth of the automotive age. In 1913 there were 1,604 autos registered in Wyoming. This increased to 2,428 in 1914 and 3,976 in 1915.

WEDDING INVITATION

"I am going to have a church wedding and I am going to be dressed as a bride. Since my father is dead, should my mother's name read on the invitations 'Mrs. Mary Smith' or 'Mrs. A. G. Smith'?" I should also like to know if it is proper to add on the bottom of the invitation about the reception instead of having a separate card."

Answer: Your mother should use your father's full name—Mrs. Albert Grant Smith, which is always a widow's correct name. She should never be addressed or mentioned in formal invitations as Mrs. Mary Smith.

Here is a combination ceremony and reception invitation: Mrs. Albert Grant Smith requests the honour of your presence at the marriage of her daughter Rosemary to Mr. Robert Jones on (day and date) at (time)

(address—home or hotel) This kind of an invitation should be sent, of course, only to guests invited to both the ceremony and the reception. If you intend to invite some guests to the ceremony only you should have engraved both invitations to the ceremony and separate reception cards for enclosure therewith.

Question: What is the proper food to serve at a baby shower held in the latter part of the evening?

Answer: Serve a buffet supper along the following suggestions: Toasted cheese sandwiches, potato chips, pickles, olives, coffee and cakes. You may substitute for the sandwiches a salad and rolls or cold cuts and rolls with the remainder as suggested.

Capella is the fifth or sixth brightest star in the sky, and the brightest star in the constellation Auriga.

NE-CA-HI MAJORETTES STILL PERFORM

Half-time at Taggart Stadium would be dull without the performance of the band and majorettes. This year the majorettes worked up their own routines. Resplendent in new uniforms, they make a beautiful display as the march during half-time. Their talents are not limited to football games but their brilliant execution of march drills are seen at every parade. The girls are: (1st row) Lucy Momo, Gemma Rubie, Joanne Cubellis, Barbara Bender, Rose Marie Linanella and Delida Tommello. (3rd row) Rosina Proletti, Beatrice, Viola Mangino, Harriet Foster, Jeanne McKissick and Carol Jenkins.

The Ladies Missionary society of the Unity church will meet this month on Nov. 30 instead of the regular time. The place will be announced later.

The union Thanksgiving service for Scott township will be held Wednesday evening, Nov. 22, at the Baptist church with Dr. John Orr of the Presbyterian church bringing the message.

The Ellen Bell Missionary society met at the Doughton home Nov. 2 with 16 women and six children in attendance. Mrs. Pearl Byers led the program.

The December Christmas party will be held at the Robert Jamison home Friday evening, Dec. 8. Mrs. Pearl Rodgers and Mrs. Betty Boehm co-hostesses.

Mrs. Singer of the Quigley apartments has purchased the Medina Inn property now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collins.

Miss Amanda Hoover of the Hoover Market, Harlansburg road, has purchased four acres from William Lutton. This land is over some of the caverns and some development will be made.

Almost every able-bodied man in this community volunteered and started to search the caves at the time the three boys were lost. William Dean, Bud Dean, Joseph Gibson, Phil Cox, Dave Kamerer, Frank Gruca and James Harkless were the first to enter the search, about 20 minutes after the alarm was given. The quick response and work of the local men is commendable and no one doubts but that they would have completed the job successfully if it had been necessary.

Chiang Kai-Shek Advises Chinese To Leave Korea

TAIPEH, Formosa, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek appealed to the Chinese people today to refuse to take part in the North Korean campaign and advised those Chinese Communist troops in North Korea "hurry to the front and surrender."

The Generalissimo in a broadcast told the Red troops that they had been "deceived" by Chu-Teh, the Chinese Communist commander-in-chief, and Red leader Mao Tse-Tung.

The radio appeal by the Generalissimo followed an exclusive statement he cabled to International News Service giving his views on the Chinese Communist intervention in Korea.

In the Nationalist leader said

Rival Dog Food Holds Line; No Price Increase

CHICAGO, November 13—Housewives can't buy much with a dime today, but when it comes to Rival Dog Food, the little ten cent piece still looks like its old self. The makers of Rival are holding the line on price, in spite of the fact that all the elements that go into its manufacture have increased in cost. Since dog food is an important item with millions of dog owners, it is no wonder that so many have expressed their appreciation to the Rival Packing Company for maintaining its 10c price for the full pound can, by buying in ever-increasing quantities.

Food Value, Quality Unchanged

In announcing its intention to hold the price line, the Rival Packing Company stresses the fact that the high quality of Rival remains unchanged. The same rigid standards are applied in checking the purity and food value of every ingredient that goes into Rival Dog Food. "The secret of maintaining price and quality, when manufacturing costs are rising," state Rival officials, "is large volume. America's dog owners have made that possible, by purchasing Rival at a record-breaking pace."

Production Capacity Increased

With demand for Rival Dog Food growing, it has been necessary to add to Rival's manufacturing capacity. As a result, Rival Packing Company is now constructing additional plant facilities which will greatly increase production.

"How I Relieve Distress of Monthly Female Complaints and nervous feelings several days before..."

"Several days just before my period I'd feel so nervous, irritable, so restless, easily upset at the slightest thing—due to female functional monthly disturbances. I asked my druggist for something to take, and he told me Lydia Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Now I get simply amazing relief from this distress. Pinkham's Compound also relieves monthly headache, backache and those miserable bearing-down pains—due to this cause. Taken regularly—it helps build up resistance against such distress.

"What also impressed me about Lydia Pinkham's Compound is that it's made strictly from nature's roots and herbs (plus Vitamin B). There are no harmful drugs in it. This is really a great comfort. I wish you girls troubled this way would give this great medicine a fair trial."

P. S. Pinkham's Compound tastes swell in a little fruit juice or just plain water. Or you may prefer Lydia Pinkham's TABLETS with added iron—pleasant to take and easy to carry in your purse.

Parent - Teachers Float Places First In Parade

Using the title theme "Every Child's Birthright" which was divided into the four divisions of a secure home, a steady mind, a sturdy body and a firm faith, the New Castle Parent-Teachers float won first prize in the colorful Armistice Parade Saturday evening.

Mrs. Samuel J. Rashid, president of the City P.T.A. Council had chosen Frederick W. Boley, president of the Highland P.T.A. as chairman of the float committee, and with the help of representatives of the seven schools in the Council, namely, Arthur McGill, Highland, Lincoln-Garfield, Ma-honingtown, Oak Street, Rose Avenue, and Pollock, an interesting effect was achieved.

The long flat-top trailer was covered with green grass carpeting and a boy and girl from each of the schools were the feature players in the separate scenes. "A Secure Home" showed the corner of a living room, with rug, easy chair and stool, side table and lamp. "A Firm Faith" depicted a stained glass Gothic church window with lamps attached and two choristers in robes standing as if in song before music stands. "A Steady Mind" showed two school desks with the pupils facing a table with books and school supplies in front of a blackboard. "A Sturdy Body" completed the four-part float with a small goal post with lighted football attached and flanked by a football player and cheerleader.

This effective setting was highlighted by a Queen of the Float, Miss Melva Jean Black of the New Castle senior high school, who stood attractively attired in a white formal and black velvet robe before a back-drop of red and silver-jeweled cloth. Rising above her was a rod-holder supporting a stylized harp bearing the four themes.

The national colors of red, white and blue, befitting Armistice Day, were used in profusion with streamers tying the scenes together. The final panel showed the drawing of a modern school building which is the aim of the New Castle P.T.A. units and the school board. Beneath it the old-type building, which remodeling will not help, was shown as discarded and bearing the legend "Progress Means Advancing." The child actors on the float were Ada Mae Pablone, Linda Essinger, Margaret Jane Feass, Barbara DeGennaro, Robert Bonk, Mary Lee Ezzo, Lee Hazen, and Ted Lattimer. Fred Boley had the following sub-chairmen: Orlando Lucidore, general arrangements; Ed Feass, construction; Bob Gillfillan and Harold Dangerfield, electric wiring and lighting; Otto Pearsall, signs and art work; Bill Trimble, drawings; Mrs. H. Dangerfield, ornamentation; and Rita Fletcher, make-up.

The committee wishes to thank the several local merchants who so capably and willingly assisted in making the float such a success.

WATER THREATS
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—(INS)—Nathan B. Jacobs, a Pittsburgh engineer, says water shortages are a threat to the nation's industrial output. Four-Alarm Fire In Philadelphia; Loss About $200,000

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 13. — (INS) — A four-alarm fire raged through a number of buildings in North Philadelphia's factory district today causing an estimated $200,000 damage.

Four buildings were nearly leveled by the flames and a fifth was damaged. Firemen prevented the blaze from spreading to a lumberyard, however.

The fire ate through two building occupied by a number of trucking firms, destroying about 20 truck trailers and a quantity of merchandise. An empty warehouse and a structure occupied by Cities Service Oil Co. also were gutted.

THE HUNTING SEASON

In the fall our nimrods get their guns and hunting equipment fixed up. They start out with lots of pep and figure on having a big time. They hope to catch some game.

The girls do not wait for hunting season. They are on the look out all the time. They keep themselves in good condition and see that their equipment and ammunition are in the best of shape. When they see the man they want—bang.

Sometimes hunters are not in good physical condition but do not know it. They start out pretty briskly but tire out before long.

Perhaps it would be a good idea to give the hunter a once over the same as his equipment.

In grand opera he appeared as "Amonastro in Aida," as "Tonio in Pagliacci," as "Mephisto in Faust," "Boris in Boris Godunov," and in stage plays, "Brutus Jones in Emperor Jones."

He made many appearances in recitals in the United States and Europe. He was also the composer of "African Suite" for violin and orchestra, and many songs—"Does Ah Love You?" "Grandmother's Melodies," "Beside a New-Made Grave," "The Farwell," etc. He died in 1943.

Benvenuto Cellini was an Italian artist, metal worker and sculptor, born in Florence on Nov. 1, 1500. At 15 he was apprenticed to a goldsmith. Implicated in a brawl in Florence, he was banished to Sienna, and some of his work dates from this period—a silver casket, some silver candlesticks for a bishop, and a gold medallion of "Leda and the Swan"—the head and torso of "Leda" being cut in hard stone. It is now in the Vienna museum. Being pardoned and returning to Florence, he worked on medals, the most famous being "Hercules and the Nemean Lion" in gold "repousse" work. He also worked in Rome and Paris. Among his works of art (many of which have perished) were a colossal statue of "Mars" for a fountain in Fontainebleau, a life-sized statue of "Jupiter, a salt-cellar made for Francis I at Vienna and many medallions and medals. Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

A tourist in Algiers told his guide, "I'm tired of seeing all the places you show every American. I want to see the real Africa!" The guide said, "I will take you to the wildest, most exotic cafe this side of the Sahara. You will never forget it!" The two men walked to a dark and forbidding house on the edge of the town, and after a certain amount of hokus-pokus at the gate, were admitted.

Several nondescript characters were draped in various abandoned attitudes about the premises, but what immediately caught the tourist's eye was an English colonel, impeccably attired, swagger stick and all, who, believe it or not, was exactly six inches tall! As he stared in disbelief the bartender threw a red silk cord over the edge of the bar, the colonel pulled himself up hand over hand, and perched on the top with a whiskey and soda.

The guide was delighted. "What luck," he told the tourist, "you're going to meet Colonel Pringle, one of the most fascinating sights in all Africa!" Then he turned to the six-inch figure, and boomed, "Be a good fellow, Colonel Pringle, and tell my tourist friend about the night you told that witch doctor to go jump in the lake!"

Around Hollywood

By JAMES PADGITT
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, Nov. 13.—Cecil B. De Mille personally shoos the curious away from the locked and barred gymnasium doors where Betty Hutton is learning to be a trapeze artist and Dorothy Lamour is practicing to be an "iron jaw girl."

The hush-hush business is all for De Mille's 1951 extravaganza of the big top, "The Greatest Show On Earth."

Dorothy swings through the air hanging onto a slim rope with her teeth and La Hutton does all kinds of gyrations on the trapeze. They have to be letter perfect in their parts—for the closeups, at least.

Seek Perfection
Both girls have until January to perfect their circus routine. The picture gets underway at the Ringling Brothers-Barnum and Bailey Circus winter quarters at Sarasota, Fla., after the first of the year.

They made a special leather bit for Dorothy for her "Iron Jaw" part and all the sarong girl has to do now is to swing by the hour to get used to the thing. She says that her neck muscles are sore as blazes and that her teeth ache.

De Mille secured the circus aerial adagio team of Lynn and Linda to give Betty Hutton pointers in swinging on the trapeze, standing up without holding on and getting off the apparatus gracefully.

"I put on a campaign to get this part," says Betty, "and I am going to make good. I promised C. B. I would cut out smoking and get to bed at 8 o'clock every night, just to get in shape."

Will Get Workout
Betty hops a plane tomorrow for Montgomery, Alabama, where she joins the circus for a few days to practice with the regular aerial performers.

All the big names in Hollywood wanted parts in the circus picture.

Hutton badgered De Mille for the aerial role as soon as she heard that his next would be a circus picture. She spent a thousand dollars one time on a floral piece for De Mille's office. The floral "bribe" stood 4 feet high and depicted a lady trapeze artist.

Only other casting on the picture is the part of Klaus, the elephant trainer, who will be played by Lyle Bettger. Jimmy Stewart has not been signed yet, but insiders say that it is in the bag for him to play Koko the clown.

There is an elephant girl still to be cast as well as the "Clark Gable type" circus manager and the role of a male aerialist Lucille Ball has been mentioned as the elephant girl, Burt Lancaster and Cornel Wilde for the aerialist role and Gable himself for the boss of the Big Top.

Air Force Needs Pilots, Navigators

The U. S. Air Force has issued another call for young men to volunteer for training as pilots and navigators, according to Cpl. P. A. Colla, local Recruiting Sergeant.

While the Air Force has an ample pool of pilots trained before and during the last war, it still requires a constant flow of young pilots and navigators trained for active flying in today's jet fighters and bombers. To qualify for the Aviation Cadet Pilot Training Program, a man must be a citizen, single, and must have completed two years of college. He must pass a written examination designed to test flying aptitude, be in excellent physical condition and have high moral and personal qualifications.

Wooden Lapel Pins—Home-Made

You can be sure that relatives or friends of the family will treasure wooden lapel pins made by Junior or Junior Miss. And the job is not hard. With a coping saw, the youngsters can cut out simple figures—fish, leaves, acorns from thin wood. Pieces of cigar box serve very well.

The pins may be painted, waxed, oiled or stained. A good job of sandpapering prior to the painting job helps the appearance. If the young handicrafts man wishes, he can burn in designs with a piece of hot wire or carve the figure so as to make it more attractive.

Almost any ten-cent store will have pin backs that can be put on the back of the ornaments so they may be fastened to coat or blouse.

Estranged Wife Shot By Husband

PLYMOUTH, Mich., Nov. 13.—(INS)—Twenty-two-year-old Earl Smith of Plymouth, Mich., told police today he shot and killed his estranged wife in a tavern last night because he "couldn't stand the idea of a divorce."

Smith's 21-year-old wife, Mary, was killed as she sat with a girl friend in the Cavalcade Inn on the outskirts of Plymouth.

Witnesses told police Smith fired both barrels of a double-barreled shotgun at his screaming wife.

Detectives reported the couple had been married only 18 months during which time five separate divorce actions were started.

Young Smith also had been under court order to stop molesting his wife after a series of attacks on her and attempts to break into her home.

Believe 17 Russian Built Jet Planes Have Been Destroyed

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Air Force announced today that it has probably destroyed 17 Russian-built jets in an air battle from which conventional engine planes are rapidly disappearing along the Manchurian border.

An Air Force roundup, covering the period from Nov. 1 through Nov. 11, listed the following accomplishments in the air battle:

Destroyed—Two Russian Mig-15 jets and 16 Russian conventional engine Yaks.

Probably destroyed—15 Mig-15s. Damaged—14 Mig-15s and 9 Yaks.

In addition, the report said that 48 airplanes not identified as to types were destroyed on the ground.

A spokesman said that "very few" of the conventional-engine planes have been appearing in the last few days. He said he believes the enemy now realizes that the slower planes cannot compete with American jets.

The spokesman attributed the large number of "probables" in the destruction list to the fact that the crippled enemy jets disappeared across the Manchurian border and their fate could not be learned.

However, H. T. Killingsworth, vice president in charge of the A. T. and T. long lines department, said that "normal" forces of telephone workers had reported for work yesterday in 14 cities in which the company operates long distance circuits.

sions units did not even fire a shot during the day.

International News Service War Correspondent Bernard Kaplan reported in a Monday midnight dispatch that Red troops appeared to have withdrawn from the entire area of the 24th's advance.

To the east of the 24th's sector, the U. S. First Cavalry Division drove north from the Kunuri segment of the Chongchun bridgehead for gains of one and a half to two miles Monday. The First Cavalry met strong resistance.

Resumes Drive

On the east side of North Korea, the U. S. First Marine Division's Seventh Regiment resumed its drive in sub-freezing temperature across a snow-covered plateau toward the huge Changjin (Chosin) reservoir.

INS War Correspondent Irwin Tress reported at 9:25 Monday night (7:25 a. m. EST) that the leathernecks pushed three miles north from captured Kotari to within five miles of the reservoir's southern rim.

Gen. Douglas MacArthur's Tokyo Headquarters spokesman said UN patrols have been reported to have reached the reservoir—one of Korea's prime sources of electric power—but that none remained there.

Civilian Aluminum Supplies Will Be Cut 35 Per Cent

WASHINGTON, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The government today ordered a 35 per cent reduction in civilian aluminum supplies and warned that the action will result in some unemployment and higher prices for aluminum products next year.

The order is effective Jan. 1. National Production Administrator William H. Harrison said he issued the order because the military rearmament program will require about 30 per cent of the nation's annual aluminum output of one million tons.

Harrison told a news conference that the aluminum reduction will hit civilian manufacturers in widely varying degrees depending on their particular past use of aluminum.

A private in the fire ranks draws $252.30, a month.

The chief receives $282.80, one assistant chief $272.80, and the other, $263.90.

Services Are Begun At Slippery Rock Presbyterian Church

Evangelistic meetings opened at the Slippery Rock Presbyterian church Sunday evening, when Don McLaughan of the Worldwide Missionary Crusade of Chicago, Ill., preached on the subject "The Rich Young Ruler" or "A Picture of a Young Man's Back." Frank Wiley led the song service and was accompanied by David Wiley. Rev. McLaughan preached at the morning service on the theme, "Patches and Skins," emphasizing the fact that no one can patch up the rents in their life but must have an entirely new garment, neither can there be any joy with new wine in old containers, but real joy comes from an entirely new condition of life in Christ. Meetings will be held each evening, except Saturday at 7:45 p.m. for two weeks ending November 26, with Rev. McLaughan preaching each evening.

PLANNING SIMPLIFIES STORAGE PROBLEMS

Best way to solve storage problems is to assemble all the equipment and supplies you need in housekeeping tasks, group articles according to use and then plan and build storage to fit them.

There are three "musts" to observe when planning storage:

1. Store everything within easy reach.

2. Store articles where they are easily seen.

3. Store things near where they are used.

When you have all equipment assembled, go over it carefully. Articles you don't use or need, sell, give or throw away. Unused equipment takes up space and clutter the storage areas, making it difficult to find things you do need and use.

Group together articles seldom used or those that have seasonal use, store them in the less accessible storage places, leaving storage room within easy reach for articles used every day.

If you live in an old house where storage facilities are not adequate, you can improve them by using step shelves, removable benches, shelves and plate racks.

"Planning for Better Storage" and "Storage Clothing" are the titles of two publications which are available at the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Building, New Castle.

CABBAGE

Cabbage is one of the most valuable of all vegetables, providing a variety of nutritional elements. Its greatest nutritional value can be obtained when it is served raw. Cabbage is quite plentiful and should be served often.

BASKETS HANDY AROUND THE HOUSE

Baskets have all kinds of uses for household tasks. They are attractive, easy to empty and clean, well ventilated and light. There is a use for every basket, no matter what its size and shape.

Notice how a child can grasp easily a basket handle to carry his playthings in. Baskets make an attractive holder for magazines or for an arrangement of fruits or flowers. Try a sturdy basket to hold logs for the fireplace. Use baskets for waste paper, they're more attractive than tin and will last longer than cardboard.

Your grandmother probably used a basket to hold her sewing supplies. Now you can buy baskets for the same purpose—deluxe models that have a separate compartment for every sewing need. They also come in special sizes and shapes for crocheting and knitting.

Baskets for bread or rolls, or long ones for crackers, are becoming increasingly popular at the dinner table.

At housecleaning time, a flat-bottomed basket to carry cleaning supplies is ideal, and it will save many steps.

One of the most common uses for baskets, of course, is to hold the groceries on marketing day.

A pretty basket for baby's bath equipment makes a nice gift.

FARM SHOW ENTRY DATES GIVEN

The closing date for entering livestock and live poultry in the Pennsylvania Farm State next January 8 to 12 at Harrisburg, is November 18. Livestock includes: horses, swine, sheep, beef and dairy cattle. Live poultry includes all exhibition standard-sized chickens, bantams, turkeys, ducks, and geese.

Premium catalogs for the show and entry blanks are available at the Agricultural Extension Office, 206 Post Office Bldg., New Castle.

SAVE ARMS AND HANDS: RESPECT CORN PICKER

Many hands and arms are lost every year in Pennsylvania because of carelessness in operating corn pickers. A recent study in another state indicates that disregard of the following rules leads to most corn picker accidents.

1. ALWAYS stop the picker to clean shapping and husking rollers, or to make adjustments.
2. Train new operators in proper operation of corn pickers, tractors and elevators.
3. Be particularly cautious during mid-morning and mid-afternoon. Stop and rest a few minutes so you will be more alert.
4. Always keep the power take-off shield in place.
5. Wear close-fitting clothing.
6. Never attempt to clean out the picker while it is in motion.
7. Never take a chance, particularly when working late at noon or at dusk.

Drive Slow—Children Move Fast!

Today's Fashion Flash

By PHYLLIS BATTELL

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—

The up-to-the-minute fur for down-to-earth price is a 1951 innovation called clipped fox. It's the same old fox, given a dose of dye and a beaverish haircut!

Designed by high-fashion New York furrier Esther Dorothy, this fox in clipped clothing has not yet reached the mass-production fur stylists. It sells, at swanky Miss Dorothy's salon for around $500 per jacket. When produced in larger quantities next spring, it'll drop to an even more budget price. Miss Dorothy assures fashion editors that clipped fox is as sturdy and long-wearing as nutria or beaver, the luxury furs it imitates.

Like her now-famous "dye furs" discovery, she expects it to become a world-wide trend.

CLAIMS DROP 6000

HARRISBURG, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The Unemployment Compensation Bureau reported today that benefit claims dropped approximately 6000 during the week ended November 4 to 51,600.

"Unemployment claims reflected layoffs in construction and in some heavy equipment industry hampered by shortages of metal," the bureau reported. "Spotly employment in the clothing field also affected the claims load." Claims during the reported week totaled $945,800.

TOT-LOTS

CHICAGO—(INS)—An increasing number of cities are providing neighborhood "tot-lots" for small children of pre-primary age making it unnecessary for parents to send their young a long distance to playgrounds. A typical example of this playground development is in Cambridge, Mass., the American Public Works Association reports, where during the summer 12 "tot-lots" were acquired and equipped.

NAUGHTY NINE LONDON.—(INS)—Naughtiest children are the nine-year-olds. Sir Harold Scott, London's Commissioner of Police, said at a "Save the Children" conference: "Those a year older are bad, too, but nine is the naughtiest age."

Westminster Gridders Lose At Allegheny 33-14

Westminster college's football losing streak ran to three straight games Saturday afternoon, despite a hearty first-half exhibition and an 85-yard return of a kickoff by Ellwood City's Carl Mantz. The final count read Allegheny 33, Westminster Titans 14 as a chilled audience looked on at Meadville's College field.

For half a game the Titans stole the show. The first quarter was all Westminster as the New Wilmington team swept into Allegheny College territory three times. They scored the third time. Bob Sisk, the Westminster quarterback, tossed to fullback Paul Campbell in the left flat, at mid-field, and Campbell outran half the Allegheny team, running 50 yards to score. Sisk's placement made it 7-0, Westminster.

Titans Take Lead
Allegheny's Golden Gridders tied it up with 8:50 remaining in the first half, as halfback Jerry Watson sparked. Watson returned a Sisk kick 19 yards to the Titan 34; then, two plays later, quarterback Don Malmberg flipped to Watson who caught the ball on the eight, picked up blocking, and ran over. The kick made it 7-7, but the Titans came roaring back. Mantz took the Allegheny kickoff a moment later and ran 85 yards, from his own five to the Allegheny 10 before he was caught from behind. A play later it was Mantz through the left side of his line to put Westminster ahead 13-7 with 7:25 left. Sisk's boot was good for the extra point.

Gators Tie Score
The Gators tied it up with 2:20 remaining in the first half. Sisk was rushed and could only kick 18 yards, out of bounds on his own 33. Three plays afterwards and Paul Reese got behind the Titan secondary to catch a Malmberg pass that was good for 21 yards and the score. The half ended that way, 14-14.

Westminster hopes tumbled late in the third period. Tom McGrath, a freshman halfback, fumbled the ball away on the Westminster 11. Moments later Watson took Malmberg's pass in the left flat and raced over the goal to make it 20-14, Allegheny.

It was Allegheny's final 1950 appearance and the Gators added two touchdowns before it was over. A 60-yard drive ended as Watson crashed over from the one; then a Sisk pass try was intercepted with six minutes left.

The Gators moved on the ground this time from the Westminster 32 to the five. Then a Malmberg pass to Watson was good for a final score.

Giants Defeat Cardinals, 51-21

Steelers Hand Baltimore Defeat

By J. N. BARRINGTON

(U. N. S. Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—Steve Owen, the round coach of the New York Giants, who is famous for defense, is being hailed as an offensive wizard today, simply because he did what he liked most.

Owen's Giants stole the show in the National Football league yesterday by switching from the power-minded T-formation back to their old A-formation single wing to trounce the Chicago Cardinals 51-21.

Steelers Win
The big game of the day was the one in which the Bears dumped the Yanks out of first spot, 28 to 20. George Halas' monsters of the midway, beaten by the Yanks two weeks previous, staged a second half surge to gain a second place tie with the New Yorkers. Los Angeles won its seventh game 45 to 14 over the Packers. Bob Waterfield tossed two touchdowns and Glenn Davis pitched for another.

The Browns belted the San Francisco 49ers 34 to 14, and the Eagles walloped the Washington Redskins 33 to 0. Joe Geri paced the Pittsburgh Steelers to a 17 to 7 victory over the Baltimore Colts.

Barons-Indians Tangle Tuesday

(By International News Service)

Cleveland's Barons get a chance to take over first place in the American Hockey league tomorrow night when they battle the Springfield Indians while the leading Cincinnati Mohawks are idle. The Barons, with 22 points, are one behind the Queen City icers, but a win would put them one marker in front to lead both divisions of the league. Buffalo tops the Eastern division with 20 points. Both the Barons and the Mohawks won last night, Cleveland defeating New Haven, 7-3, and Cincinnati downing Buffalo, 5-1. Meanwhile, Hershey, second-placers in the Eastern loop, edged Providence, 2-1, to gain two points on the Buffalo icers. The Bears are now three points behind the division-leading Bisons.

In other games last night Pittsburgh squeezed by St. Louis, 2-1, and Indianapolis barely got by Springfield, 6-5.

Ladies Headpin Tourney Planned

Something new for lady bowlers in New Castle will be staged at the Castle Alleys on December 3rd, a "Headpin" tourney. It was announced today by Maxine Krueger.

All entries must be filed by November 29th with the Castle alleys, Mrs. Krueger or Ruth McMillan. There is a small entry fee. Prizes will be awarded the successful bowlers. George Shook is donating a beautiful trophy to the winner.

To make a perfect score in headpin play the bowler must score 120, by hitting the headpin every time. There are no strikes or spares, you get only the count on the number of pins knocked down. You roll just one ball per frame. This is strictly accuracy bowling.

Butler Cubs Edge Ellwood City, 12-0

The Butler Cubs banged across two straight second period touchdowns to edge the Ellwood City Bolts 12-0 at Ellwood Saturday before less than 100 fans. McCullough found a hole good for ten yards early in the second quarter and ran for the game's first touchdown, in giving the Cubs a six-point lead.

The Cubs only a few minutes struck through the air from Meyers to Vargo, for another six pointer. Butler led 12-0 until Dick Wharton barged over from the 2 late in the final period. Wiltrout kicked the point and the game ended 12-0.

Meyer Believed Out As Manager

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—Pirate General Manager Branch Rickey meets with Field Manager Bill Meyer in Pittsburgh today and baseball followers say Meyer will be given his walking papers.

Officials of the ball club claim it is merely a routine meeting to discuss the draft list and possible trades prior to the major leagues meetings next Thursday.

Meyer has one year remaining on a three-year contract which pays him a reported $40,000 annually. His job has been in jeopardy ever since the ball club changed hands last July.

Possible successors include Lou Boudreau, who was replaced as manager of the Cleveland Indians last week, and Fred Haney, manager of the Hollywood stars of the Pacific Coast League.

Valley Champs End Perfect Grid Year

The Freedom Bulldogs chewed off victory number eight for the season at Bessemer's expense, pasting the Cementers 24-0. Several thousand semi-frozen fans watched the home town valientes end their season undefeated and untied.

Jack Trettel remained in the race for valley scoring honors when he pushed over the first score from the one yard line. The Bulldogs had taken advantage of a Cementer fumble on the 25.

Freedom then took further advantage of a fourth down penalty which moved their sticks for a first down, and shook loose Chuck Tolbert for 40 yards and a touchdown. The halftime score read 12-0 Freedom.

Schaville Clicks On Passes
"Mooney" Schaville opened the third quarter with a successful aerial attack, until Jim Gagliana, fumbled a completed a strike on the 25.

The Bulldog assault then began on the 25 and again ended in the Bessemer end zone when sub Desanji knifed inside tackle from the 14 to run the score to 18.

Freedom retreated for five straight Schaville pass successes, and then pounced on another Cementer loose ball on their own 14. Tolbert then climaxed the 86 yard drive by bouncing over from the three.

The Lawrence County B champs moved to the three when the game ended. Bessemer's season score-board read 5-1-3.

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(INS)—C. T. Chenery's Hill Prince has been named "horse of the year". The three-year-old Virginia bred colt won going away in the annual pool conducted by the Daily Racing Form.

Hill Prince scored a "triple" when he was picked as the best three-year-old colt and best three-year-old regardless of sex.

Titan Harriers Win Cross Country Meet

Westminster College won the Tri-State cross country meet at Slippery Rock Saturday by taking three of the first six positions against four district foes.

Dick Bloom, who paced the Titan runners, came in second place at 24:09. Other Titans who figured in the 32 point total for Westminster were Ralph Foster, who finished fifth; Glenn Snodgrass, who came in sixth; Frank Legge, who finished ninth, and Tom Kelly, who came in 10th.

Tech Runnerup
Carnegie Tech took second place in the meet with 56 points, followed by Slippery Rock (77), Bethany (87) and Geneva (112).

Only Three Undefeated College Teams In State

By TROY GORDON

(U. N. S. Sports Writer)

The number of undefeated college football teams in Pennsylvania could be counted on the fingers of the pitching hand of an old-time baseball pitcher named Mordecai Brown, who was more commonly known as "Three-Finger".

Carnegie Tech and Bloomsburg suffered their first defeat last week, leaving only Lehigh, Franklin & Marshall and Thiel with perfect records.

All three of them had it easy. Lehigh mutilated the Tech team 66-0. Thiel battered Lycoming 61-0 and F. & M. slugged Washington & Jefferson 34 to 0.

Bloomsburg Loses
Bloomsburg was the victim of an upset by a good but once-beaten West Chester squad, 31-6. It ended the Huskies' string at 14 in a row.

Penn had a big day against Brown, beating them 50-0 in a warmup for tough Wisconsin. Penn State finally got even for the season, trimming West Virginia 27-0.

And how about Bucknell? The Bisons not only upset Temple but manhandled the Owls 35-0 in a surprising contest.

Duquesne Trimmed
Pitt, Lafayette and Duquesne found it the same old story.

The Panthers played their best game of the year, but still took their eighth defeat. It was Notre Dame this time, 18-7.

Lafayette dropped its seventh to Rutgers 31-7.

Duquesne couldn't handle Detroit and lost a Sunday tilt 47-14. Millersville turned in its first victory after seven losses, surprising Kutztown 25-6.

Other Pennsylvania results were:

Toronto Hands Bruins Shutout

(By International News Service)

The Toronto Maple Leafs may have been checked but they were never stopped.

The Leafs, whose string of 11 games without a loss was marred Saturday night by Detroit, came storming back Sunday night and started what may be a new streak.

They pulverized the last place Boston Bruins, 7 to 0 to stay four points ahead of the Red Wings in the National Hockey League race.

The Wings strengthened their second place position with a 4 to 0 blanking of the Montreal Canadiens while third place Chicago won its fifth straight, 4 to 1, over the New York Rangers.

Bear Season Starts Today

PITTSBURGH, Nov. 13.—(INS)—The 1950 bear hunting season began early today in Pennsylvania for some 125,000 big-game shooters who trekked into the state's northern county woodlands—home of the prized black bear.

During the six-day season, individual shooters are permitted one bear over a year old, while camps of three or more hunters may kill only two.

Hunters this year will try to break the record weight bear of 538 pounds taken more than a decade ago, and to surpass the 569 record catch of 1947.

Safety Leaders To Speak Here

Accident Prevention
Meeting Friday Night

J. Fred Clarke, president of the Lawrence County Chapter, Pennsylvania Motor Truck Association today extended a general invitation to the public to attend the Accident Prevention meeting Friday night November 17.

The meeting will be held in The Castleton Hotel at 7 o'clock and is a regional meeting of the state association.

Usually these bi-monthly accident prevention meetings of the state association are held in the eastern part of the state. The record of the Lawrence County chapter in safety work is such that the association had the November meeting scheduled here.

"Driver of the Month"

Featuring the meeting will be the presentation of the "Driver of the Month" award to Edward L. Douthett, a driver for the Haney Furniture Company. Mr. Douthett has driven a truck for 32 years, over half a million miles, with never a chargeable accident.

He was selected from the entire state to receive the award.

W. Robert Smith of Altoona will be the chairman of the meeting at 7 o'clock with the following speakers: Robertson Cameron, Public Relations Director of the PMTA who will speak upon "The Public Relations Value of Accident Prevention Activities." George Lowe of the Atlantic Refining Company in Philadelphia will speak upon "The Value and Importance of Driver Training." Owen McDonnell of the Philadelphia Inquirer will speak upon "A Newspaperman Looks at the Accident Problem." William Pritchard of York, will speak upon "Management and the Accident Problem."

Letters have been sent to industrial heads and merchants inviting them to attend the meeting. Every truck owner and driver is invited as is the general public.

HOW DR. EDWARDS' HELPED ME LICK CONSTIPATION

the clogging, transient kind!

"For years Dr. F. M. Edwards, a noted Ohio doctor, successfully relieved his constipated patients with his famous Olive Tablets—now sold by drugstores.

"Whenever undigested food clogs my intestines and causes constipation with its bad breath, lack of pep, sallow skin—I rely on Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. They always work so gently yet thoroughly giving such complete, more natural-like bowel movement!"

Olive Tablets are a strictly all vegetable formula. They act on BOTH upper and lower bowels and clean waste from entire intestinal tract. 16¢, 30¢, 60¢.
